the first race were prolif in abole. Acreeding its Belie, Acreeding its Belie, Acreeding its Belie, Acreeding its Belie, and the others tipped, but it remained for Thomas and the choice of the handicappers, trail the first prize. The latter was avorite, and left the others in the ht to fight it out among them, of lancus, Bennie Williams, Mariogra and Astoria Belie, constituted chance and he went around the trace a dozen lengths in the lead, the rest of the party pacing all the way in the heap that the rebellious Colonel would comback to where he was expected to be long. But he continued the merry lead into the stretch, where the others the began to close up, but not fast enoug to head off the Colonel. He lasted ion enough to beat the rapidly coming Reid moore which in turn beat Shenandoa for the place. The latter came stront eut of the bunch and just nipped third. The clockers had the latter down for good one. At post time the betting, ha changed to 50 to 1 on the winner, showing that he was liked by some one of some set, but there was not much be all told.

A Chinese laundryman in the infiel had $2 straight and place on the ion shot and the doughnut woman in the paddock had a 50-cent interest in a do lar bet on the winner. She got $50 for her pennies, a dollar for each cent, stable boy seld the other 50 per cent, of the partnership.

Acrobat Had No Speed.

Acrobat, from the Vingut string, the club house the in the third, but Vingut's horse had no speed. He outrun from the start, Zethus, the prite, ridden by Miller, winning by eral lengths. Tim O'Toole got the gas easily from Beleast, which made first appearance of the year. The house coterie railed Mr. Vingut, Setauket, L. L. good naturedly acrobat lumbered home fourth.

Easy for Buttling.

Buttling, the rejuvenated McG reiding, so off in the lead, all five to go out and set the pace, giving the much touted and prophilander a bit of the front running sufferance. Then Buttling moved took the lead at the stretch head drawing away, won galloning. Photos with Miller up, beat Rye, the other contender.

Royal Onyx Wins Fifth.

Royal Onyx, backed consistently 4 to 5, romped off with the fifth leading all the way with Anna in close attendance. They finished way, with Plowaway easily thin side, played on the strength or good races at New Orleans and a by Mountain, sol off poorly and do no better than fourth.

Cellas Lose $20.000 on Divore The Callas lost $30,000 on Divorce the last race the filly being best hose on the peat by Ruscimo, & deel was third. But for interfe Divorcee would surely have won.

7,000 STRIKERS TIE UP THE BIG OCEAN LINES AND RIOTING IS BEGUN

'Longshoremen Beaten Back After Attack on Strike-Breakers Landed at the Bush Terminal.

Disorder to-day marked the attempt of the coastwise and transatlantic steamship companies to break the big 'longshoremen's strike with Italian and negro laborers. When a tug landed a ragged human cargo of strike brackers at the docks of the Bush Terminal in Brooklyn this afternoon a big crowd of union men made a rush for the newcomers and in a minute a good-sized riot was in progress. The police reserves, who had been sent to the wharves in anticipation of such an outbreak, charged the downward and tully dressed, was found belligerents with their clubs. They drove the strikers back after arrest- when she let herself in with a latenkey ing three of them and clubbing a good many more. Several of the Ital-
